

“They look too posed.”

En Espanol 2, c2000, grade 10

“They have nothing to do with some of the curriculum.”

En Espanol 2, c2000, grade 10

“Some are unrealistic.”

En Espanol 2, c2000, grade 10

“They are very old fashioned looking (outfits, hair, etc.).”

En Espanol 2, c2000, grade 10

“There are not enough pictures of actual people ... just cartoons.”

Statistics Through Applications, c2005, grade 11

“Not many diagrams are designated to the diversity (human) aspect of biology.”

AP Edition Biology, c2005, grade 11

“The pictures are very good, but a lot of the diagrams are too complex.”

AP Edition Biology, c2005, grade 11

“Sometimes they are too small to fit all the info needed in the diagram.”

Geometry Concepts, Skills, and Problem-Solving, c2008, grade 9

“Too many buildings.”

Latin for Americans, c1997, grade 11

“Not many pictures with people.”

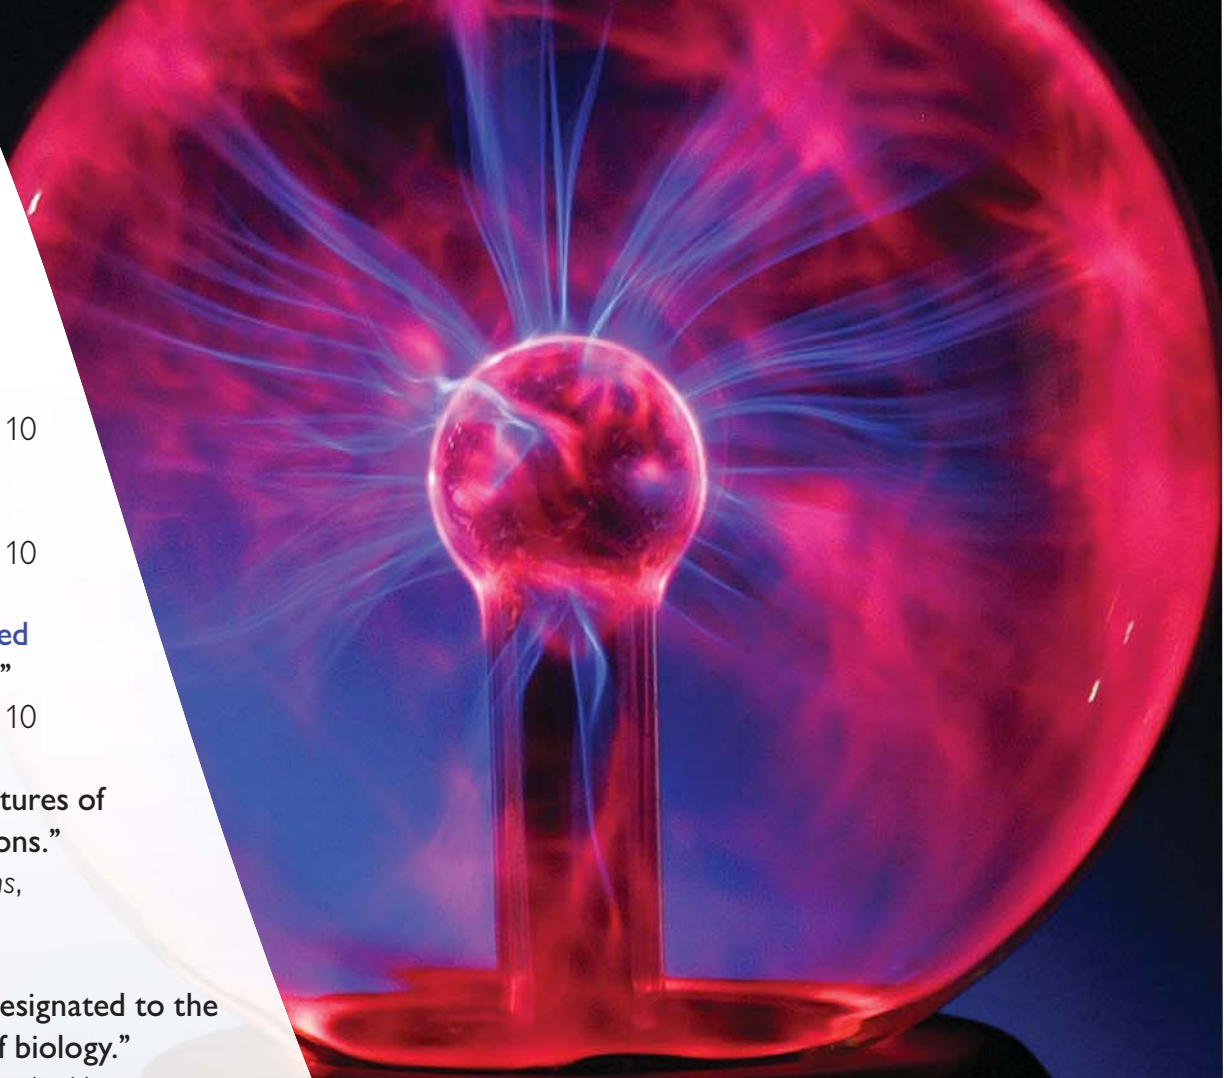

Chemistry: Matter and Change, c2007, grade 11

“A lot of the photos seem to not relate to the topic we are learning.”

Algebra 2, c2001, grade 10

“They are too old even for 2001. Kids won’t make the connection.”

Algebra 2, c2001, grade 10

1.

What are your biggest complaints about the photos in your textbook(s)?